

Spools

Spool DOYLES manufactures adapter spools, spacer spools, drilling spools, riser and diverter spools in accordance with API 6A requirements.

Each spool can be specially manufactured to meet height requirement needs, number of outlets and orientation. All spools can be fabricated with hub or flanged connections.

-
-
-

Each spool is drift tested to ensure that access to the well-bore is not restricted. Spools are typically manufactured using API 75K 4130 Material that meets NACE MR0175 requirements for H2S Service.